

“Heritage, conflicted sites and bordered memories in Asia”

July 18 and 31, 2020 - ONLINE (Zoom), through Kyushu University Border Studies

PART 1: Materials and Modes for Narrating the Past, Saturday 18 July, 16:00-19:00 (JST)

Time and the Nation

- “The Chineseness of Chinatown in Singapore”, Ying-Kit Chan (Leiden University)
- “The Inheritance of Voice, Intentionality, and Provincial Japan: Storytelling in Tsugaru”, Joshua Lee Solomon (Hiroshima University)
- “Politics of Heritage: The Takatori Residence as an Expression of Status for the Meiji Elite”, Arisha Satari (Kyushu University)

Commentator: Steven Ivings (Kyoto University)

Repurposing Sites in/as Heritage

- “World Heritage and Intimacies: Insights from ‘Hidden Christian Sites in the Nagasaki Region’”, Raluca Mateoc (University of Geneva)
- “Art in former military sites: spectres of geopolitics in South East Asia”, Gabriel Gee (Franklin University, Lugano)
- “Japanese War Sites as Contested Heritage”, Justin Aukema (Kyoto Women’s University)

Commentator: Edward Boyle (Kyushu University)

REGISTER FOR PART 1 HERE: <https://forms.gle/eP44yhjZr6YykoVN7>

PART 2: Contesting and Memorializing Sites of Heritage, Friday 31 July, 9:30-12:30 (JST)

Edges of the Nation

- “Desecration or Veneration: The Legacy of Shinto Shrines at the Borders of Imperial Japan”, Karli Shimizu (Hokkaido University)
- “Remembering the Battle of Okinawa in the Yaeyamas”, Edward Boyle (Kyushu University)
- “Museum Education through Reenactment: Considering Historical Sites in Korea and Japan”, Jason Mark Alexander (Kyushu University)

Commentator: Jonathan Bull (Hokkaido University)

Narrating Ruptures

- “Collective history-making of WWII through dark educational tourism in Japan”, Kaori Yoshida and Huang Bui (Ritsumeikan Asia-Pacific University)
- “The War Memorial of Korea, its Representation of War, and Citizens’ Struggle over Contested Memories on South Korea’s Burdening Past”, Dasom Lee (Independent Scholar)
- “Framing negative heritage in disaster risk education: school memorials after 3.11”, Julia Gerster and Flavia Fulco (Tohoku University)

Commentator: Shu-Mei Huang (National Taiwan University)

REGISTER FOR PART 2 HERE: <https://forms.gle/idaqhJRvcTFrHs3b8>

Contact:

Ted Boyle - boyle@law.kyushu-u.ac.jp

In Collaboration with the BAJS Japan Chapter and Faculty of Law, Kyushu University