
IERES • THE INSTITUTE FOR EUROPEAN, RUSSIAN AND EURASIAN STUDIES

On the Front Line in the Far East: The Chinese Eastern Railway and Russo-Chinese-Japanese Relations, 1905-1935

Part of IERES' Visiting Scholar Roundtable

with

Blaine R. Chiason, Wilfrid Laurier University

Chia Yin Hsu, Portland State University

Ronald Suleski, Suffolk University and Masafumi Asada, IERES and Hokkaido University

Moderator: Daqing Yang, George Washington University

The history of the Chinese Eastern Railway (CER) is a good example of transnationalism in historical studies of the Russian Far East and Northeast Asia. The goal of this round-table is to conduct a full and frank exchange of views about the CER and to build bridges between experts focused on Russia, China and Japan.
