2. From Kimpo Airport to Heukseok Station :

We recommend you to use subway line number 9 from Kimpo airport to Heukseok station. In subway line number 9, there are two kinds (one is an express subway and the other is a normal one). If you would take on the normal one, then you can just get off at Heukseok station. Since the express one does not stop at Heukseok station, you should get off at Noryangjin station (two stops before Heukseok) just to get on the next normal one. Usually from Kimpo airport to Heukseok station, it takes about one hour to get to Heukseok station.

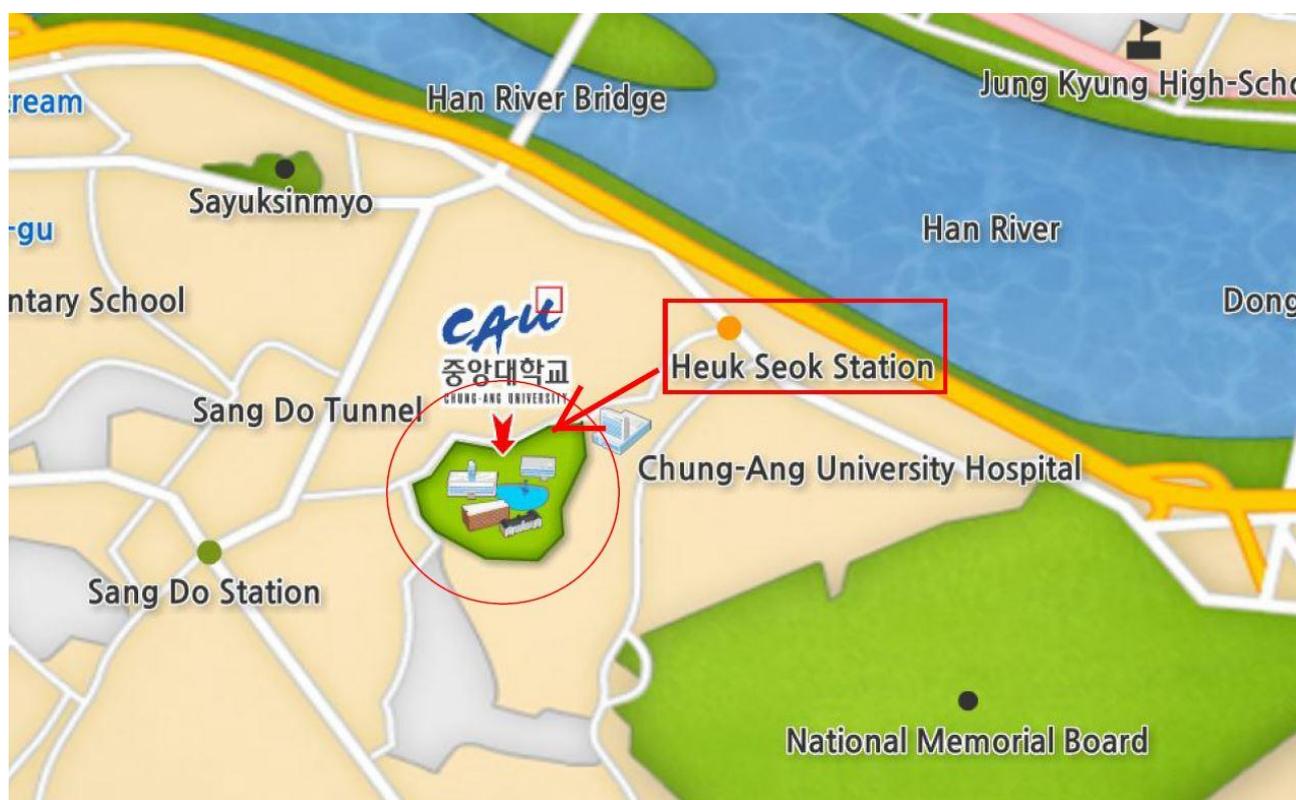

You could see the Seoul City metro map here.
