

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

INEQUALITY, SOCIAL WELFARE, AND ROBUSTNESS OF SOCIO-ECONOMIC SYSTEMS IN RUSSIA AND CIS

DATE:
DECEMBER 15 (MON), 2025 14:00-17:00

VENUE: MEETING ROOM 403, 4TH FLOOR,
SLAVIC-EURASIAN RESEARCH CENTER, HOKKAIDO UNIVERSITY

PROGRAMME:

Welcoming address 14:00-14:10

Vasily Anikin (HSE University/FCTAS RAS)

Session 1. Inequality and Social Welfare in Russia and CIS 14:10-15:10

Vasily Anikin (HSE University/FCTAS RAS) 'Industrial Poverty and Managed Welfare: Inequality, Social Transfers, and Systemic Fragility in Russia's Working Population'

Vladimir Kozlov (Nazarbaev University), Vasily Anikin (HSE University/FCTAS RAS) 'Differences between Generations in the Subjective Vision of the Economic Situation: A Comparative Analysis of Russia and Central Asia'

Break 15:10-15:20

Session 2. The Robustness of Russia's Socio-Economic System 15:20-17:00

Satoshi Mizobata (Kyoto University) 'How Robust is Russia's Socio-Economic System under Economic Sanctions?'

Kazuho Yokogawa (Kanagawa University) 'How Robust is Russia's State Finance under Economic Sanctions: From A Regional Perspective'

Victor Gorshkov (University of Niigata Prefecture) 'Strategic Adaptations and Challenges of Foreign Banks in Russia Amid Economic Sanctions'

ORGANIZED AND SUPPORTED BY:

Project-Based Collaborative Research for the Fiscal Year 2025 on the Slavic Eurasian Region (Former Soviet Union and Eastern Europe) Slavic-Eurasian Research Center, Hokkaido University, Project Research 2025 of the Joint Usage/Joint Research Center, Institute of Economic Research (KIER), Kyoto University, and the Japanese Society for Comparative Economic Studies (JSCES)