Submission of Manuscripts

The Eurasia Border Review (hereinafter referred to as “EBR”) is a peer-reviewed, annually published periodical of Eurasia Unit for Border Research (Japan) at the Slavic-Eurasian Research Center, Hokkaido University. The EBR is committed to publishing in-depth scholarly research for a diverse audience of scholars, practitioners and policy decision-makers, and welcomes original manuscript submissions that focus on borders or borderland issues in the wider Eurasian region from across the humanities and social sciences. In order to assure the publication of original work, authors are kindly requested not to submit manuscripts currently under review with other journals.

The EBR engages in a double-blind review process by qualified readers. Please refer to the next section, “Instructions for Authors,” for additional information, and follow the guidelines in order to prepare an anonymous submission.

All correspondence, including manuscripts and/or inquiries, should be sent to the editors and/or the secretariat:

Instructions to Authors

The Eurasia Border Review accepts all manuscripts pertaining to borders or borderland studies in the wider Eurasian region. All manuscripts must be the original work of the author, submission of the article to EBR indicates that the manuscript has not been previously published elsewhere, nor is it under review for publication in any other journal. Please be reminded that once manuscripts are accepted and published all rights are assigned to EBR, however, the author retains the right to reproduce copies for class or any other non-commercial use and to reproduce the article in books of which he/she is an editor or author. Please refer to the following submission guidelines for further details.

< Submission Guidelines >

Electronic Submission

1. Please submit manuscripts and images electronically to the editors at iwasi@slav.hokudai.ac.jp or p.b.richardson.1@bham.ac.uk. Electronic submissions should be formatted using Microsoft Word compatible software. Images and illustrations can be submitted for the review process, but please include titles or captions. Also, the author(s) are responsible for providing high resolution images and the permission to publish them.

2. Please submit a cover page including the name(s) of author(s), institutional affiliation, rank or position as well as the name, address, phone, fax and email of the contact person regarding the manuscript. Also, please provide a Statement of Intention confirming that the manuscript has not been published elsewhere and that the author will not submit it to other journals until he/she receives the final decision of the editorial board, and that the manuscript is not part of a book-length publication planned for that same year.

3. If you cannot submit your manuscript electronically, please mail three copies of the manuscript to the following address: Slavic-Eurasian Research Center, Hokkaido University Nishi 7, Kita 9, Kita-ku, Sapporo, Japan 060-0809.

Formatting

1. Manuscripts must be double-spaced using 12-point type (preferably Times New Roman or Century) and 1.2 inch (or 30mm) left and right margins, 1.3 inch top (or 35mm) and 1.2 inch (or 30mm) bottom margin formatted for letter size (8.5 X 11 in.) or A4 size (210 X 297mm), while footnotes should be formatted using 10.5 point type. The total length of the article must range between 7,500 to 10,000 words (or approx. 35-45 pages) and must include a 150 word abstract at the beginning of the manuscript.

3. Please provide a separate electronic file for images and illustrations (including figures, tables and graph) and indicate clearly where the images should appear in the text (for example: “Fig.1 here”).
Please note that author(s) are responsible for providing high resolution images for publication.

4 Please italicize all foreign words and provide the English translation. Also, please use the following romanization systems: Russian: Library of Congress; Chinese: Pinyin; Japanese: Hepburn; Korean: McCune-Reischauer.

Peer Review, Final Manuscript and Copyright

1 All manuscripts will be peer reviewed by at least two qualified readers. Please only provide your name on the cover page and leave your name out of the manuscript to ensure anonymity. Please note that manuscripts that are regarded as lacking anonymity will be returned which may delay the reviewing process.

2 Once the manuscript is accepted for publication, authors will be asked to submit the final manuscript with revisions by a final deadline provided by the editors.

3 If the final manuscript fails to meet EBR standards, the editors reserve the right to reject the manuscript. Responsibility for opinions expressed and the accuracy of facts published rests solely with the individual author(s).

4 Please be reminded that once manuscripts are accepted and published, all rights are assigned to EBR. This also means that EBR reserves the right to upload final articles onto its online journal website as well. However, authors retain the right to reproduce multiple copies for use in class by students or for any other non-commercial use, provided no sales are involved. He/she also retains the right to reproduce the article or an adapted version of it in any volume of which he/she is an editor or author and permission will be given to the publisher automatically, subject to normal acknowledgement. EBR will also ensure that direct requests received to reproduce the author’s article or a substantial part of it in another publication will be subject to the author’s approval.
